

The image displays a detailed topographic map of a region in Germany, centered around Vöhringen. A cycling route is highlighted in orange, starting at Vöhringen (marked with a red arrow) and ending at Staale (marked with a red arrow). The route passes through Langenwil and Bachtelen. A red double arrow indicates a distance of 8.6 KM. The map features contour lines, rivers, and various place names. A Swiss Map overlay shows a profile view of the route, indicating a maximum elevation of 893m and a distance of 8.62km. The profile view also shows the elevation of the start and end points (793m and 893m respectively) and the total distance (8.62km). The map includes a scale bar and a compass rose.